The CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and certification marks are financial planning credentials awarded by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (CFP Board) to individuals who meet education, examination, experience and ethics requirements.. Candidates for certification must have a bachelor's degree (or higher), or its equivalent, in any discipline, from an accredited college or university in order to obtain CFP® certification. The candidate must also pass an examination, have three years of personal financial planning experience, and meet the CFP Board's ethical requirements. In addition, continuing education requirements must be met.

Item 3. Disciplinary Information

The Registrant is required to disclose the facts of any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's evaluation of the supervised person described in this supplement. The Registrant does not have any required disclosures to this Item.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

The Registrant is required to disclose if the supervised person has any outside business activities. The Registrant has no required disclosures for this item.

Insurance Commission

John Llodra is also a licensed insurance agent with various insurance companies, and in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully-disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Registrant recommends the purchase of insurance products where John Llodra receives insurance commissions or other additional compensation.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

The Registrant is required to disclosure if a supervised person receives an economic benefit outside of his or her regular salary for providing advisory services (i.e. bonus for referrals). The Registrant has no disclosures related to this item.

Item 6. Supervision

John Llodra is a Managing Member of the Registrant and is generally responsible for his own day-to-day supervision.

In addition, Michael Preston will periodically review the activities of John Llodra, including review of personal securities transactions and respond to any client inquiries or concerns regarding John Llodra. Michael Preston will review email, client files, and other documents that may be relevant to the advisory activities of John Llodra. Michael Preston is also a Managing Member of the Registrant and is available at (978) 537-7701.
